THE mouth-ful Arizonian bears something drop.

IT IS high time for Anthony Comstock to get after the managers of the dramatic stars.

GENERAL VANDEVER is to be accompanied on his campaigning trip by Hon. H. V. Morehouse.

SHARON PARK is to be made one of San Francisco's attractions. It will be for children. Sharon, dead, is not half a bad man.

THE latest shock is the announcement that nothing short of an earthquake can shake Manning out of the Cabinet. Daniel is a straight Democrat.

VIOLET CAMERON has had her husband arrested for threatening her life. This is apparently another advertising scheme in behalf of this melodorously boomed actress.

IT is said that E. J. Baldwin intends to acquit himself of a great philanthropic feat by dedicating his beautiful Santa Anita homestead as a public park. The report is very shadowy.

THERE is an obscure intimation that the Supervisors have been Gerrymandering two of the supervisorial districts in a way to affect the vote at the coming election. Is this so, gentlemen?

POMONA, which not long ago evolved a two-headed snake, now boasts a four-legged quail. As the law is just "out," it would be a good thing for the quail if they all had four legs and four wings.

REPUBLICANS, to-day is your last chance to register. If an election should be lost by your remissness now, the consciousness of your responsibility would hardly be a pleasant one.

ONE of the results of civil-service reform in Washington has been to furnish the National Museum with copyists who have to make their mark in signing the pay roll. This is Democratic reform.

THERE is "nothing in" the fable that "a man stands no show against a newspaper, right or wrong." A newspaper cannot overthrow the eternal principles of truth, in the long run. A lie is born only to be beaten.

SOME ill-informed sheets are bloviating that the Chronicle is "fornist" Swift. There is no excuse for such economy of truth. The Chronicle is for Swift first, last and all the time. In Thursday's issue it asserts its opinion that John F. Swift is absolutely the very best man to be the next Governor of California.

THE Express makes a serious error in declaring that, since Baynton has pleaded guilty to murder, the Court has no option but to hang him. Evidence will be heard this morning, until which time the degree, even, of the murder is not fixed. And when it shall be proved to be murder in the first degree, the Court is not forced to impose sentence of death—though the undoubtedly universal expectation and desire is that it will.

STEPHEN M. WHITE can be elected to the State Senate from this district only by the votes of Republicans who are personally friendly to him. In this particular case, however, such support from them would be a perversion of friendship. Mr. White was fairly bulldozed into accepting the nomination. He did not want it, nor could he afford it. To be elected would rob him pecuniarily, and give him no new honor. The friendly thing to do will be to keep him at home, where he can do his own interests justice. To elect him would be friendship not to him, but to the Democratic party.

SAN FRANCISCO has six lady candidates for members of the Board of Education. The ladies made their first point by declining to appear before the convention and pay their assessments, like men. They submitted that no salary is paid to a school director, and when a man pays an assessment to get the office, he is under suspicion of intending to get his money back dishonestly, for he can get it back in no other way. Good! There is logic, principle and victory in such a position. There is talk of placing one or two ladies in nomination for the School Board of Los Angeles when the next election time comes around.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

A Deputy City Tax Collector Short in His Accounts.

Theo. Cobler has for years been well-known in this city. He has held numerous clerical positions, and numerous deputyships under county and city officials. He is also a prominent officer in the A. O. U. W. His latest position has been as deputy to City Tax Collector John Fischer, in which capacity he has served for the last four months.

His work has been in the collection of personal property taxes. Last Monday he confessed to Mr. Fischer that, being hard up, he had embezzled $110. He then disappeared, and has not been seen since. The family, which is an excellent and respected one, will make up his shortage, and will have universal sympathy. It is not known where he has gone.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The Pyke Company made a change in their programme last evening, substituting The Mikado for The Pirates of Penzance, as previously announced. The season closes to-night with Three Black Muskies. At the matinee The Mikado will be given again.

Baptist News.

The reception given to Rev. W. H. Pendleton and family by the Central Baptist Church and friends, at the residence of J. Percival, 745 South Hill street, last evening, was a very pleasant affair. The rooms were well filled with a joyous throng, who were very nicely entertained with essential singing, solos, quartettes, etc.; also, some recitations by Rev. Pendleton.

Rev. Wm. Ayer, Rev. H. Pendleton, it is expected, will be formally set apart to the pastorate of the Central Church next Sunday evening. Rev. Ayer will preach the sermon, Rev. Pendleton will propound the usual questions, and Rev. Dr. Gregory will offer the consecrating prayer. Rev. Dr. Gregory, Rev. Ayer and Rev. Pendleton will extend the hand of fellowship.

THE CZAR'S CHOICE.

Russia Must Call a Halt in Bulgaria,

OR SUPPORT HER CLAIMS WITH ARMS.

Profound Sensation Caused by the Hungarian Premier's Anti-Russian Speech —Other News From Abroad.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Times's London cable says: "The papers all have leaders declaring that the situation is more serious than it has been at any time since the abdication of Prince Alexander. Premier Tisza's answer to the Diet is said to have been wildly applauded by the Hungarians, as well it might have been, for bolder words from an Austrian dignitary have not been spoken since Sadowa. The declaration seems to render it impossible for Austria to back down an inch or refuse to make Herr Tisza's word good. Yet, it amounted to a guarantee that Gen. Kaulbars would not be allowed to do precisely the things he placarded all Sofia with his intentions to do. Unless Russia backs down and recalls Gen. Kaulbars, it is difficult to see how a collision is avoidable. Nobody believes that Russia will back down. It is significant that Turkey is massing troops at Adrianople as earnestly as if war had recently begun. She is also said to be hard at work fortifying Armenia. Late dispatches from Vienna report an extremely excited feeling there. At Pesth the general expectation is that Russia will force matters to an issue at once. There seems to be no doubt that Bulgaria will stand firm in defiance of Russia, now that Austria is at her back, and events are likely to march now at a stirring pace."

THE SENTIMENT OF AUSTRO-HUNGARY.

PESTH, Oct. 1.—Herr Von Tisza adopted the unusual course of reading his speech in the Hungarian Parliament yesterday. Printed copies were given to the newspapers in order to avoid mistakes. The speech gives general satisfaction, although it is thought to be lacking in explicitness in the government's relations with Germany. It is expected that the effect of the speech in Bulgaria will be to encourage the government to resist Russia.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—The entire press of Vienna approves of Premier Tisza's speech made in the Hungarian Parliament yesterday.

LONDON, Oct. 1—Herr Tisza's speech in the Hungarian Diet, yesterday, is interpreted at Pesth as meaning that Austria would remain neutral if Bulgaria should submit to Russia, but if Bulgaria should resist Russia, that Austria would prevent the occupation of Bulgaria by Russia.

THE ATTITUDE OF BULGARIA.

SOFIA (Bulgaria), Oct. 1.—The people throughout the country have held meetings and adopted resolutions begging the government to reject Gen. Kaulbars's demands.

Gen. Kaulbars's moderation is due to a telegram from M. DeGiers, to the effect that Russia did not wish to interfere with the Bulgarian Constitution or with her domestic affairs.

Several officers arrested for participation in the revolution have been released on parole.

M. Stambuloff has informed Gen. Kaulbars that he himself and all the ministers and regents are willing to give a pledge that Alexander will not be re-elected.

The inquiry into the revolution has been concluded. The Sobranje will be asked to empower a court-martial to try the offenders. It is reported that three ex-ministers are implicated. The accused will, with the exception of the leaders, be dealt with leniently.

AS BAD AS WAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1.—Novoe Vremya publishes a telegram from Moscow, which says: "The Bulgarian crisis has paralyzed trade and checked the revival of business, which good harvests had incited. Moscow is prepared for any eventuality. The present condition is as bad as war, if not worse."

ENGLAND SATISFIED.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Times this morning says: "England has good reason to be satisfied with the statements made by Herr Tisza in the Hungarian Parliament, yesterday, which indicates the point beyond which the Austro-German alliance cannot be strained without breaking."

RUSSIAN SYMPATHIZERS WHIPPED.

MOSCOW, Oct. 1.—The Gazette declares that thirty Bulgarians have been whipped to death for expressing sympathy with Russia's action in Bulgaria.

FOREIGN NOTES.

A Spanish Duke Comes Out for a Republic in Spain.

MADRID, Oct. 1.—A manifesto to the Spanish people signed by Enrique de Bourbon, Duke of Seville, is being circulated in Spain. The document, which was published in Tarbes, France, is dated September 28th. In it the Duke, who is under imprisonment for having attempted to force his way into the Queen's presence while he was on military duty at the palace shortly after King Alfonso's death, complains that he is harshly treated in prison. He also declares that, although he is a Republican by birth and at heart, he loyally served his cousin, King Alfonso, so long as the latter was alive, because family duty made such service imperative. "Now," says the manifesto, "that King Alfonso is dead, all that is ended, and I desire to assist in proclaiming a republic for Spain. A republic is the only form of government that can furnish a guarantee for the security and integrity of the country."

PREFERRED EVICTION TO PAYMENT.

DUBLIN, Oct. 1.—The tenants of the Taafe estate, at Ballahaunis, County Mayo, to-day, went in a body to the agent of the estate, and asked him to reduce their rents. The agent refused to do so, whereupon the tenants left, saying that they would rather have evictions than pay impossible rents.

ROME, Oct. 1.—Since the last report, there have been five deaths from cholera and nineteen new cases throughout Italy.

THE NEWMARKET RACES.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—This was the fourth day of the Newmarket 1st of October meeting. The race for the Rouse memorial stakes for two-year-olds was won by J. Winteringham's filly Caller Herring, by a neck; Lord Falmouth's colt Blanchard, second; E. H. Comber's colt Pierrepoint, third. There were eleven starters. The Duke Beaufort's filly Reine d'Or was the favorite.

A TREATY RENEWED.

FLOODS AND FIGHTS.

MADRAS, Oct. 1.—Floods are devastating the Godavery district. Some villagers tried to cut the dam to relieve their own village of water at the expense of other villages. A fierce fight ensued, in which 100 natives were killed.

A NOBLE GIFT TO FRANCE.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—The entire domain of Chantilly, with its magnificent castle and all its dependencies, the value of which, at its lowest estimate, is over 50,000,000 francs, was presented yesterday by Duc d'Aumale to the Institute of France, to be held by it in trust for the French nation.

Executioned to Be Hanged.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 1.—Jung Guong Sang, convicted of the murder of Henry Vandervoort, was, to-day, sentenced to be hanged on Friday, November 19th.

NATIONAL NOTES.

Manning to Remain in the Cabinet in Any Event.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The Star to-night says: "At the Treasury Department there seems to be no importance attached to the report that the President has offered the Secretaryship of the Treasury to Senator McPherson. It may be stated with certainty that Secretary Manning is going back to the Treasury. He has decided to remain at the head of the department so long as his health will permit him to do so, even to the end of Mr. Cleveland's term. When the members of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet accepted their appointments it was with the understanding that they enlisted for the war, and that they would remain in the cabinet until the end of the term. Those who are in a position to be best informed on the situation do not think that Senator McPherson will be Secretary of the Treasury should Mr. Manning find by experience that his retirement from active life is necessary to his health."

INTERCEDING FOR A MURDERER.

The Secretary of State is officially informed that the Canadian authorities having learned that further representatives in behalf of Sproule, the American, convicted of murder in British Columbia, were on their way from the Department of State to London, have again respited him, this time until October 29th. He was to be executed to-day.

The following are the officers elected to-day: Reuben G. Lemon of Ohio, G. G. T.; Christopher G. Fox of Buffalo, N. Y., G. G. S.; Benjamin F. Heeler of Tennessee, G. G. C. P.; Roger W. Woodbury of Denver, G. G. P. S.; Lansing Burroughs of Augusta, Ga., G. G. R. A. C.; Sylvester S. Bean of Preston, O., G. G. M. 3d V.; Henry S. Orme of Los Angeles, Cal., G. G. M. 2d V.; Hiram Basset of Kentucky, G. G. M. 1st V.

A PLEA FOR THE VETERANS.

The extension of the special delivery system of the Postoffice Department to all postoffices and matter, goes into effect to-morrow.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Sharon's Legacy to be Used for a Park for Children.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The statement is published that the Park Commissioners have given up the idea of erecting a magnificent gateway at the entrance to Golden Gate Park with the legacy of $50,000 left by the late William Sharon. They propose instead to establish a children's park, which will be situated in one of the most picturesque parts of the grounds. Among the features of the proposed park will be a fine breed of milch cows whose product is to be furnished free to children, and there will be swings, flying horses, lawn-tennis grounds and many other attractions. When the park is completed it will be called "Sharon Park," in honor of the memory of the man who made the liberal donation. The commissioners have $68,000 in their possession to carry on the work, and they estimate that the actual cost will be about $60,000.

INSURANCE COMPANIES AND WAR RISKS.

There was a rumor on the street to-day that the marine insurance companies were beginning to charge extra rates on war risks on account of the European complication, but the agents of the principal insurance companies in this city deny the truth of the rumor, stating that they do not consider the situation any more critical than for the past year.

DID NOT NOMINATE.

The Democratic Fourth Congressional District Convention met this evening, but adjourned shortly without transacting any business.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Senator Sherman's Views on the Present Silver Dollar.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1. — Senator Sherman visited the Exposition this morning, and this afternoon was received with enthusiasm by the Chamber of Commerce. In the course of a brief speech he said:

"But the greatest question of all, perhaps, is the silver question—how to make it equal to the gold dollar—for there should only be one standard. I have gone through one stage of redeeming Uncle Sam's money, and I do not want to go through it again. You might have put more silver in your dollar and made it equal to gold, but then it would be too big, as it is now, but any way it would be a good thing to go to work with. A dollar must be a dollar, and a dollar's worth of silver must be put into it to make it a dollar. That is honesty and prudence. If I had my way I would stop the coinage of the silver dollar, gather it into Uncle Sam's great vaults and then issue certificates and let you handle them. These certificates would form the basis of our national bank circulation, and preserve what I believe to be the best system of banks in the country. The tariff and other great issues would in a measure regulate themselves, but the silver question is the great one of the future. The dollar of one value is what we must have before we can have that stability so necessary to national security and business success."

THE WHEELMEN.

A Brilliant Display Given by the 'Cyclers at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1—St. Louis has had many magnificent processions, but nothing has eclipsed the novelty and weird beauty of the wheelmen's illuminated parade, which took place to-night on the asphaltum streets of the west end of the city over a route nearly three miles in length. A dense throng of people greeted the parade, and despite the efforts of the police, the crowd filled the streets in some places so that only a narrow path was left for the 'cyclers. Headed by a brass band of fifty, the riders rolled up the streets, two flambeaux clubs on wheels carrying red torches, lighting up the line, which was about a mile long. Squads of riders representing animals, demons, cowboys and humpty Jumpty formed a variegated collection, while some special bicycle and tricycle floats were marvels of illumination. The State Officers of the League of American Wheelmen, under whose auspices the parade was given, have been asked to repeat it during the fair next week.

Railway Extension.

MISSION SAN MIGUEL, Oct. 1.—The railroad graders moved their camp a mile south yesterday, the grading having been finished to this place and the track laid within two miles north of here.

Large Fire at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—Reinhardt & Newton, candy manufacturers, on West Second street, were damaged $750,000 by fire, shortly after midnight; insurance, $40,000.

A Bad Season for Cutters.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 1.—The match race to-day between the Seabom and the English cutter Miranda, over a course of twenty miles to windward and return, was won by the Seabom.

MILES'S MISTAKE.

The Surrender of the Hostile Apaches Obtained

BY A PROMISE TO SPARE THEIR LIVES.

The Government Embarrassed by his Disregard of Orders—A Singular Statement From Capt. Lawton.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The report of Gen. Miles is still in the hands of the President, and has been the subject of a brief conference to-day between himself and Secretary Endicott, but it is understood that no line of action has yet been decided upon. In regard to that portion relating to the surrender of Geronimo, while the text of the report is not yet accessible for publication, it is known that in respect to that matter Gen. Miles does not explain himself to the satisfaction of the authorities, and that his granting of conditions, which are now understood to be even more liberal than has heretofore been supposed, is the subject of embarrassment and perplexity. Without saying so in emphatic terms it is gathered from Gen. Miles's roundabout expressions on the subject that an agreement was made that the lives of the prisoners should be spared and that they should be removed at once from Arizona. In this respect Gen. Miles has, it is said, gone contrary to the well-understood wishes of his superiors, which action amounts practically to disobedience of orders. The only reason suggested for this course in the absence of any satisfactory statement on the point of Gen. Miles, is fear that if he did not secure the prisoners in this way they would make terms with and surrender themselves to the Mexicans. This would have rendered the termination of the campaign apparently less creditable to the Americans. In this state of affairs there seems to be nothing which the authorities can do for the punishment of the prisoners except to keep them permanently as prisoners of war. Even should the civil authorities of Arizona demand them for trial with the most positive proof of murder ready for presentation, the hands of the administration would be tied.

LAWTON CONTRADICTS MILES.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 1.—The statement in Gen. Miles's official report of the Apache campaign, made public at Washington, yesterday, that Geronimo was not captured, but surrendered conditionally, is contradicted by Capt. Lawton, who was in command of the United States troops at the time of the capture. In a private telegram to Lieut. Albee, of the Winchester Armory, dated Albuquerque, N. M., Capt. Lawton explicitly denies that the surrender of Geronimo was coupled with any conditions whatever.

A BORDER OUTRAGE.

Mexican Policemen Shoot a Prisoner on Texas Soil.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 1.—Two Mexican policemen yesterday pursued a native, whom they wanted to arrest, across the Rio Grande into United States territory, and a little beyond the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe depot they came up with him. Being both armed with rifles, they fired at him, inflicting a serious wound in his head. They then seized the disabled man and dragged him back to Mexican territory. American policemen at El Paso were informed of this violation of international law on United States territory, but too late to prevent it. When they arrived at the river bank they saw the Mexican police with their bleeding victim just ascending the other bank. Great indignation is expressed here over the outrage.

Volcanic Eruption in Alaska.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—A letter published in the Bulletin under date Kadiak, Alaska, Sept. 16, says that the volcanic peak of the Pavloff mountain, 300 miles southwest of that place, on the Alaska peninsula, is in active eruption. Slight falls of volcanic dust resembling emery powder, have been observed. Capt. Curry, of the schooner Kadiak, reports that on August 12th when a hundred miles from the volcano the vessel was enveloped in a black cloud. The darkness was so great that lamps were kept burning from 10 a. m. till 2 p. m. At the same time black dust fell on the deck to a depth of several inches.

Capt. Abbey, of the U. S. steamer Corwin, who arrived here August 21st also brought samples of dust and reported having heard a noise like thunder while passing near the volcanic region. No earthquake shocks have been reported thus far in connection with the outbreak.

The Mob Relented.

STEELEVILLE, Mo., Oct. 1.—Ever since F. P. Wallace was brought here under arrest for the murder of the Logan family there have been threats of lynching and rumors of plans on foot for carrying the scheme into execution. At 1 o'clock last night an organized body of masked men marched to the jail, proceeded to Wallace's cell and brought him forth. Wallace made a statement stoutly protesting his innocence. At this the mob hooted and yelled, and at a given word a rope was thrown over a limb and Wallace was suspended in mid air. He was held there a few minutes and then let down again, the mob still hoping he would confess. Col. A. J. Leay, a man greatly respected in town, addressed the crowd, and advised them to desist and allow the law to take its course. The sheriff and several others followed in the same vein. The mob lost its vim, and the prisoner was delivered to the sheriff, who replaced him in his cell. The crowd then dispersed.

The City of Shakes.

CHARLESTON, Oct. J.—There was a slight shock here at about 1 o'clock this morning, but so slight that it was not felt by the majority of people. There were slight shocks at Summerville last night, but none of them were more perceptible than the tremors felt almost every day since August 31st. The weather to-day is bright and pleasant. The city is full of workmen, and everything is as confident and quiet as could be wished.

Further News from the State Convention at Riverside.

Correspondence of the Times.]

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 29.—The annual State convention met at Riverside Wednesday, Sept. 25th, and will be in session two days. At 9 a. m. devotional services were led by Mrs. Emma Smith, after which the actual work of the convention began. Mrs. S. A. Keyes, vice-president, announced the illness of the late president, Mrs. C. S. Bird, of Los Angeles. This caused a feeling of regret and disappointment at the loss of her annual address. Prayers were offered in her behalf. In the seating of delegates by counties, and the appointing of committees, etc., the ladies displayed an efficiency equal to their "brothers-in-law."

Mrs. J. H. Blanchard, chairman of committee on credentials, reported forty delegates.

We omit names of delegates for want of time, but would like the public to become better acquainted with the State officers and those ladies who are superintendents of departments. The following is a list: Mrs. S. A. Keyes, legislative work; Miss E. Harriman, organizer and platform work; Mrs. L. D. More, superintendent railroad rates; Mrs. Higgins, of Santa Barbara, influence of the press; Mrs. Dr. Lord, study of narcotics; Miss Florence Dunham Young, woman's work.

Mrs. E. J. Davis of Riverside, Superintendent Grape Culture.

These ladies, by virtue of their office, together with the five State officers, county and local presidents, constitute the Executive Committee.

The reports of secretaries are of prime importance in a W. C. T. U. convention. An accurate account is usually kept and the next year's work is planned, changed or discontinued if not effective, for they have no ammunition to waste.

Miss E. Hadley, State Secretary, reports twelve new unions. One hundred and eighteen churches out of one hundred and forty-eight use unfermented wine at communion.

Juvenile temperance work is done chiefly in the Sunday schools.

Two minute talks, pledge cards, tracts and badges are robbing the saloons of the future, of many new victims.

Forty-five churches have adopted systematic temperance work.

"Days of prayer" are almost universally kept, being appointed by the National President Miss Frances Willard.

From the reports we learn that jails, prisons and hospitals are supplied with papers, tracts, etc.

Nearly $3000 has been raised in the different counties for local work.

Four reading rooms have been established, and Mrs. Stewart of San Diego reported a building completed, paid for, and eventually to be used as a Womans' Home in charge of W. C. T. U.

Other reports indicate progress all along the line.

Under miscellaneous business, papers from different superintendents are read, some of which would be good matter for the public press. The people of Riverside are enthusiastic, and do all in their power to aid the ladies. A lunch will be served at noon each day, and the evening session. The daily papers are full of good accounts, reporting in full the work.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

An Old Offender Pulled for Rolling A Drunk.

James McInerney was arrested by the police yesterday forenoon on a charge of highway robbery. The story is that McInerney followed a drunk by the name of Frank Williams into a stable on Los Angeles street, and while Williams was asleep robbed him of a five-dollar gold piece. Williams was imprisoned as a witness until the preliminary examination. McInerney is an old offender.

A Lost Child Found.

As citizen L. Junkin was walking along Aliso street, last evening about dark, he found a three-year-old child all alone. He picked the little fellow up, and brought him to the police station, where he gave the name of Harry Tibbets, but could not tell where he lived. In about an hour the parents of the little fellow came in to report their loss to the police, and were rejoiced to find him safe. They reside on Mayo street, which is over a mile from where the boy was found.

To Be Closed Fair Day.

The Board of Directors of the Sixth Agricultural District Fair Association are circulating a petition for the stores to be closed on the afternoon of Thursday, the 12th instant, in order to give everybody an opportunity to attend the park and pavilion. The petition has been signed by every one to whom it has thus far been presented, including the wholesale and retail stores.

Ohio Union.

In consequence of failure to secure a meeting place, the Union held no meeting last night, as was intended. The executive committee will take the matter in hand, and a meeting is expected to be held next week for a reorganization and the annual election of officers. Members will probably be notified by postal-card or card as through the papers.

A Ratification Meeting.

The Young Men's Republican Club will hold a ratification meeting in Manufacturers' hall, 57 North Spring street, this evening, to ratify the Republican county tickets. Good speakers are promised, and the candidates themselves will be present. The audience will be entertained with five minute speeches.

Attained His Majority.

Yesterday J. S. Slauson, Jr., attained his majority, and a social party was held at the residence of his parents, on Figueroa street, last evening. There was a large attendance and a happy time.

A Novel Defense.

A novel defense is about to be introduced in the celebrated murder trial of Lewis Webster, at Warren, Ohio. Webster has been twice convicted of the murder of Perry Harrington, Dec. 18, 1884, and is now having a third trial. The evidence on which he was twice convicted was that of Harrington's widow, who positively swears that she saw Webster's features and recognized them when the mask fell from the murderer's face after he had completed the bloody work. The accused man is a young neighbor, and had always been on the best terms with the murdered man. He bore an excellent reputation in the neighborhood, and his friends stand by him now. His sweetheart has been in the court all the time, and her devotion has been one of the pathetic incidents of each trial. It has even inspired others to believe in the young man's innocence.

But the new testimony that is to be presented, if the court will allow, is from the other world, it is claimed. Miss Nephew of Jefferson, Ohio, has recently developed into a spiritualistic medium, and she goes into trance, when the whole scene of the murder comes to view. She acts out the part of Harrington in this tragedy, defends herself with a chair against the attack of an imaginary enemy, and after a struggle she falls as though shot and becomes cold and rigid in death. After being revived she speaks with the murdered Harrington's voice and says that a book agent, who was canvassing for a "Life of Garfield," committed the murder. He found out that there was money in the house and committed murder to get it. The man is now in the West. The voice of Harrington then pleads for Webster, who was his best friend, and says that he must not be hung for a crime of which he is innocent.

The young lady did not know either Harrington or Webster when she went into the first trance, and says she would never have known them had not the unexpected something pleaded with her to go to Mrs. Harrington with a message from her husband exonerating the man now on trial.

LORD AND LADY.

A London Scandal Revived in New York.

LIVE LORD, WILFUL WIFE, SULKY SPOUSE.

Violet Cameron has her Husband Arrested for Threatening her Life—Lord Lonsdale's Part in the Play.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—David Debensande, husband of Violet Cameron, was in the Court of Special Sessions this afternoon, charged with having threatened the life of his wife. He denied that he had ever made any such threats as those charged, and stated that his only object in coming to this country was to protect his wife's honor. This afternoon Miss Cameron was upon the stand. She testified that she was married to the defendant some years ago in Italy. She was to appear in the Casino next Wednesday, but had been threatened. She had seen defendant but once, and that was outside of Delmonico's. Witness admitted that she had been charged with adultery with Lord Lonsdale, but that the suit had been withdrawn. She refused to answer further questions on that point.

Lord Lonsdale then testified that he was 31 years of age and married; he was Miss Cameron's manager. The prisoner on September 29th asked him whether he should send a letter to Miss Cameron that he had written. "I told him," said the witness, "that it was better to send it through her solicitors, as it was asking for money. I asked him if he remembered telling his solicitors that he would keep away from Miss Cameron if she came to this country. When the case against him in London was adjourned, he distinctly agreed to keep away from her. I told him that to help him I had placed myself in a false position. Now to add injury, he demands my aid to get £1500 from his wife. He threatened that unless the money was given before next Monday he would kill, main or shoot her so that she would be prevented from gaining a livelihood. I told him that I did not care to talk to him any further."

"Were you a co-respondent in an action for divorce brought against Miss Cameron by her husband?"

"I may have been."

"Don't you know?"

"No, I have had so much trouble with him. Miss Cameron brought a suit for divorce from him on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment and abandonment. She secured possession of her child under decree of the court. The child is now with her mother."

"Now you seem to have met him since you came to this country. Why did you not avoid him?"

"Because of his threats. I wanted to show the public that I was not afraid."

In answer to questions, witness further testified that he was married, that he corresponded with his wife, but did not know where she was, as she had several houses in the country and his letters were forwarded; that he met Miss Cameron about a year ago, and came to know her well about six months ago, when her husband asked witness to become trustee for his child; was friendly with him until he tried to cut his wife's throat at Porto Bello.

"Did you offer him a pistol here?"

"No. I did tell him that I would let him take the pistol if he wanted three shots at me and to give me three at him."

This concluded the lord's testimony.

Debensande testified on his own behalf that he had no occupation; that he had never made threats against his wife or Lord Lonsdale. Witness went to see Lord Lonsdale at the latter's request, when Miss Cameron was turned out of the Hoffman House, but made no threats. In response to questions he said that beyond going to places of amusement with the lord, he knew of no improper relations between his wife and the earl.

The hearing was then adjourned until Monday, but counsel for prisoner having expressed a desire to bring the matter before a higher court, as this could not be done while the case was still before a magistrate, the prisoner waived examination and was held for trial at the Court of General Sessions. In default of bail Debensaude was locked up. He went away weeping.

A TEXAS TRAGEDY.

Shocking Murder of a Farmer and His Daughter.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 1.—A story of a fiendish double murder has been received here from Throckmorton county. The victims are a farmer named Urney and his grown-up daughter Lizzie. The father, who had been lassoed and dragged some distance from his home, was found with his throat cut. The daughter had been ravished and then murdered by mutilation. Horses' tracks were discovered in the yard, which, on being followed, led to the arrest of a Negro cowboy, who said he stopped at Urney's house for a drink, and saw two white men enter the yard as he left. The Negro's lariat is missing, and he was taken in custody. Fearing lynching, the officers left Throckmorton with the prisoner.

The Chicago Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The motion for a new trial in the case of the condemned Anarchists was called up for argument in the Criminal Court this morning. Various affidavits were read in an effort to show that three of the jurors, prior to being summoned on the panel, had expressed their view that the Anarchists should be hanged. The argument will probably consume two days.

Death In a Mine.

DENVER, Oct. 1.—The Tribune's Central City special says: This afternoon Cornelius McCoy went down the shaft of the Nugget mine to rescue William Quintrall, who was overcome by poisonous gas. Later both were taken out, McCoy dead, and Quintrall in a dying condition.

Wiggins Again Heard from.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Ottawa correspondent of the Times says: Wiggins is loth to admit that he has blundered. He insists that a storm passed Quebec on its southern journey over the Gulf, and says if the people will only wait they will have enough of it.

Want the Ten-Hour System.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—It is stated that the owners of large packing houses at the stock-yards will attempt to re-establish the ten-hour system on October 15th, and in the event of failure of the employés to work on that basis, will close down the houses.

The Folsom Fire-Bug Sentenced.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 1.—Henry Webber, the young man who set fire to Folsom on August 13th, destroying the greater portion of the business part of the town, was this afternoon sentenced to five years at San Quentin by Judge Van Fleet.

WARD AND GASKILL.

Their Case to Have Immediate Hearing Before Judge Juarez.

[San Diego Sun.]

Seemingly there has been an unaccountable delay by the Mexican authorities of Lower California in bringing the case of Ward and Gaskill to trial, and adjudicating upon the merits of the charges preferred against them in connection with the disappearance of Captain Hansen, the Norwegian rancher, over a year ago. There appears to have been reasons for this delay, however, and such as are not necessarily attributed to the dissatisfaction of the gravest authorities to-ward the two prisoners so impartial hearing and without prolonging their imprisonment. A resident of Ensenada (and by the way an American citizen), who speaks from personal knowledge, gives the following explanation:

"It was about the time the two men were confined in the jail that the resident judge was suspended on charges preferred against him for malfeasance in office. The official next to him in rank partially supplied his place, but not being a lawyer was disqualified for trying a case of this kind. Under the laws of Mexico he was empowered to hear such evidence as might be given and forward the same to the court at La Paz (the capital of Lower California), there to be passed upon and returned to Ensenada. This duty the official faithfully performed, but each decision rendered by the court at La Paz contained some clause to which Ward and Gaskill made objections and asked for a continuance of the case. The only means of communication between Ensenada and La Paz being by the monthly trips of the steamer Newbern, as a consequence the trial was conducted under a decidedly slow and laborious system.

"It does not by any means follow that during all these months the two prisoners have been 'languishing and pining' in a dungeon cell, that is far from the truth, they have been allowed the greatest freedom. Each day they have gone about the town to do as best suited them—work or play. Gaskill has considerable mechanical skill, and was employed by Mr. Bennett for his cannery, and in various other capacities, such as shoeing horses, etc. Of course a watch was kept over them that they might not escape, and at night they returned to jail to sleep. In every way the utmost liberty and kindly treatment has been their lot.

"That cause for further delay will speedily be ended I am glad to state. Senor Lic Manuel Fetino Juarez, direct from the City of Mexico, arrived in San Pedro on the 27th inst., and, this morning, departed for Ensenada. His coming will work a new departure in the order of things. He is especially commissioned by the Mexican government as Judge of the Court of the Primario Instancio of the Upper District of Lower California, and his duty will be to clean the docket of all cases in that Court, Ward and Gaskell's being the first to receive attention.

"Senor Suarez has the appearance of a man of much ability. He is about forty years of age, gentlemanly and prepossessing in appearance, and I am confident he will exercise his judicial authority intelligently and unbiased.

"Do I believe Ward and Gaskill to be innocent men? Well, that it is not for me to say just now."

Was It Sir Boyle Lynch?

[San Francisco Alta.]

A candidate in one of the Southern counties is a darling on the stump. In his speech, describing his low fortunes when he went to that county, he says: "I came here poor, with only three dollars and four jackasses in my pocket."

The Book of Mormon.

After many trials and failures, a representative of the TIMES in New York has secured an interview with David Whitmer, the only surviving witness of the divine origin of the Book of Mormon, who has in his possession all the early records of the church, including the original manuscript of the Book of Mormon. In this interview, Whitmer describes how the Utah Mormons, or Latter Day Saints have departed from the original faith. He claims that the doctrine of polygamy is a corruption of the original faith, and shows how Joseph Smith and his adherents manufactured "Revelations" to suit their own designs; he describes the organization of the Danites or the avenging angels and their purposes. He gives fac-simile tracings from the original book of Mormon in the handwriting of Oliver Cowdery, the only scribe, condemning polygamy; also a fac-simile tracing from a copy of one of the gold plates as transcribed by Joseph Smith in his own handwriting. The article will be accompanied by these tracings, with cuts of David Whitmer and his house at Richmond Mission. This article will be published in the TIMES October 27th. Now that the public are greatly interested in the subject of polygamy, and what measures will be taken to suppress it, the article will be highly interesting.

The Railroad Situation.

While there has been no great "to do" about railroad building in Southern California this summer—no gold or silver spikes driven and no banquets—it is nevertheless a fact that the railroad system of the country has accomplished more in the way of amplification than in any equal period before.

A dispatch from San Francisco a few days ago announced the certainty that the Carson and Colorado line will soon be extended from its present terminus at Owens Lake to a point on the Atlantic and Pacific—probably Barstow. Large quantities of ties are said to be now on the ground, and as soon as graders can work on the desert, operations will be commenced. The length of the missing link is less than one hundred miles, and the coming winter will doubtless see all rail communication established. The TIMES has hitherto commented on the great advantage which Southern California generally and Los Angeles in particular will derive from this connection. It will reclaim for our city a trade with Inyo which it enjoyed away back in the mule-team-and-prairie-schooner-times—a trade which was taken away by the building of the Carson and Colorado road from the north. But our city and country will gain far more than it lost, for the field will now be broadened just in the proportion that the railroad is more potent and far reaching than the mule-team.

Inyo and Mono counties have not been standing still all these years. There have been great discoveries and developments of mines, great amplifications of stock growing and other industries. In the eastern border counties of California and the western border counties of Nevada there is a great deal of country which is good, though it has hitherto remained a sort of terra incognita. It is now, we may say, at the threshold of development. It needs the products and the industrial stimulus which Southern California can supply, and in return it will furnish a great many raw materials which this section requires for its further industrial growth. But, beyond the local advantages thus offered, there will be a vast advantage in a direct connection with the railroad system beyond. The Carson and Colorado extends to Carson City, and thence there is another line to Reno, connecting it with the Central Pacific. Thus, by bridging the gap between Owens Lake and Barstow, we are placed in direct communication wito another transcontinental system.

The coast extension of the Southern Pacific is said to be making most satisfactory progress. The line is now building from both ends. From New hall there is between six and eight miles of roadbed graded and ready for the rails. From San Miguel, San Luis Obispo county, the road is making rapid strides towards the Santa Barbara county line.

It is said that the Southern Pacific contemplates, besides the extension and connection of its main lines, the building of a number of feeders in Southern California. This may refer, in one instance, to the spur projected from Shorb station to Monrovia and thence out the foothills. It is possible also that the line may be extended southward from Santa Ana to San Diego.

The Atlantic and Pacific people are also wide awake and stirring. The extension of the Riverside, Santa Ana and Los Angeles branch is being vigorously pushed, and the probabilities are that it, in turn, will furnish branches to Oceanside (San Diego connection) and Wilmington.

As to the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Valley line, it is pushing steadily eastward, while the managers keep their own counsel. In a few days the terminus will be at Duarte. Fire cannot burn the belief out of people generally that this line is destined for a connection with the great systems at Colton or San Bernardino.

Concerning the purely local lines the outlook is very promising. The Boyle Heights electric road approaches completion, and a test of one of the motors is to be made shortly. Mr. Wicks's projected electric road has not been commenced yet, but the way has been cleared for it by an outlay of some $200,000. The Howland electric line is partially laid and the most positive assurances of its completion are given. The Ostrich Farm dummy line has progressed to the point of grades and ties.

A few days ago the TIMES chronicled the opening of a street line in Pasadena, and a second will shortly be placed in operation in that thriving young city.

Santa Ana and Orange have also taken the street railroad fever, and, we believe, are building.

Altogether, it has been a season of phenomenal railroad development, and, as "all roads lead to Rome," Los Angeles can well congratulate herself on the outlook.

ARE our brightest delusions, then, to be shattered? Can't we be allowed to believe even in the San Diego sea-serpent, with its crested mane and lashing tail? Here comes an iconoclastic correspondent of the San Diego Union, signing himself "Sea Serpent," who smashes the "snaik" in this wise:

"The serpent was caught at the railroad wharf at National City, and is now securely chained to the wharf. It is about sixty feet long, two feet in diameter at the head, and ten inches at the tail. A remarkable feature of the serpent is that it is of such solid substance that it apparently petrified on striking the wharf. It is of dark color, as stated by Mr. Chambers, but is without means of locomotion. How it attained such wonderful speed cannot be determined by looking at the serpent. It has been closely examined by a number of scientists at National City, and they have unanimously agreed that it is a creosoted pile, belonging to the Peninsula Company."

T'was ever thus; from childhood's hour we've seen our fondest sea-serpent demolished.

The Ambitious Kangaroo.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: I find the following little "pome" in St. Nicholas, which I respectfully present for the careful perusel of Lynch's friends, who seem to never grow tired in telling how he has "writ up the country."

They held a great meeting a king to select,
And the kangaroo rose in a dignified way,
And said, "I'm the one you should surely elect,
For I can out leap every beast here today."
Said the eagle, "How high can you climb toward the sky?"
Said the nightingale, "Favor us, please, with a song!"
Said the hawk, "Let us measure our powers of eye!"
Said the lion, "Come wrestle, and prove you are strong!"
But the kangaroo said, "It would surely be best,
In our choice of a king, to make leaping the test!"

Even Steve White has had the courage to announce from the public stand that the Illustrated Herald has been instrumental in bringing a great many "tender-feet" to Southern California. And Del Valle—whom Lynch sat down upon hard last campaign—has been dragooned into publicly admitting that Lynch has eloquently descanted upon the climate and sich. As a climatic kangaroo, Lynch has not been a failure. But, asks an old Democratic eagle, how high has he climbed into the Democratic firmament where principle gives tone and color to the mind? Then, pipes in the Democratic nightingale, when did Lynch ever sing the praises of the people, when the "terrible eye" of monopoly was upon him? Or, asks the shrewd Democratic hawk, who is constantly upon the lookout, did any one ever know Lynch to "see his way clear" when his pecuniary interest pointed one way and his public duty the other? Then, roars the old Democratic lion, if Lynch is a strong man why has he not put forth his strength in battling for popular rights? Why has he not been the valiant defender of the weak as against the strong? Did any one ever know him to draw his sword, throw the scabbard away, burn the bridges behind him, and go into the fight with the purpose of winning or falling where the battle raged the fiercest? To all these queries Lynch's adherents respond that these are not the tests. He has writ up the country—this is the slogan of the campaign. So, gentlemen, let your kangaroo statesman leap over the district, and, if he don't make a final leap over the precipice of defeat, and break his political neck, I shall never again set up for a prophet. QUIZ.

The Levee Question.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: All candid people now admit that the levee question is a most important one to the future prosperity of our city. On an inspection of the topography of this city it will be observed that the Los Angeles river flows through the corporation about midway, from north to south; and by a closer examination with the levee, it will be found that nearly every foot of real estate, off the hills, south and east of Main and Pico streets, is jeopardized by a river flood—in fact, involving millions of dollars of property and the very future existence of our "Angel City." I know it is not considered in good form, by a few selfish, purse-proud people here, to parade our municipal ghosts before the world; but I am satisfied that the masses of the people are with me, and think as I do, that frauds and humbugs of every kind should be exposed, and particularly those of a public nature, in order that we may have progress. This ridiculing the necessity of leveeing the river because "it is purely a question of the people living in the river bed, and should therefore be paid for by them," and such maudlin municipal statesmanship, should be replied to in this manner: Your story is false. This levee question concerns the whole city of Los Angeles, and stranges should know it, that this whole city is liable to an inundation in the future, embracing even the business blocks of our best streets, unless we wall up and properly control the Los Angeles river.

Happily for us, this can be securely and cheaply done. Mr. Hazlip et al. propose to continue the railroad levee down the west bank of the river, for the contiguous city lands—the same offer the Council heretofore made to the railroad company—or at $2 per lineal foot.

The Council should accept this proposition, unless they will do the work themselves, or can get some better proposition, and do it at once, before the winter rains set in and we have a recurrence of the disastrous floods of two years ago. Truly Yours,
ANGELNOS.

Los Angeles, Oct. 1, 1886.

Moore Must Refute or Withdraw

To the Editor of the Times—SIR. The charges you made, yesterday, against Mr. Moore are astounding, and cannot be left unnoticed by him. I looked with greatest interest this morning in both the Herald and the TIMES, to see what his reply would be, but I found nothing.

It is sheer nonsense for the Express to belittle the acts by characterizing them as "social sins" or "indiscretions," unworthy of notice by voters. Any serious charge against the honor, and particularly if against the decency of a candidate, made by a responsible person, must be answered. And when the charge is as grave as this, going to the very manhood of the candidate, telling specifically of bestial degredation, it cannot be ignored. If Mr. Moore does not immediately and unquestionably refute this charge, he must leave the Republican ticket; and, if he hesitates in this, the State Committee has no course left but to remove him, just as did recently the Ohio Democratic Committee, when it discovered that a jail-bird had been foisted on the convention by a gang who insisted that "their section" must be "represented."

If this charge be true, no man of self-respect can vote for Mr. Moore. It is an insult to ask him to do so. It may be a Republican's duty to vote the ticket; but if this be true, it is certainly the party's duty to furnish a good ticket; and if the party fail in its duty, surely the voter is absolved from his. Very fortunately for good government and good morals, in this progressive and prosperous community, the number of intelligent and independent voters who speak and vote their sentiments, is very large. REPUBLICAN.

Milk and Philosophy.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: In the TIMES of the 28th inst., Frederic M. Shaw, our "back-woods philosopher," has given utterance to some of his conclusions, which I consider not only derogatory to the interests of us poor milkmen, but which are also apt to bias public opinion and convey an erroneous impression to the community at large. That is, he has proven, after 'an elaborate investigation," in his own scientific way, that the "milk of human kindness" and cow's milk are not identical. Now I have the audacity to contend that just the opposite is the case, or rather that one begets the other. I am not a philosopher, not even a back-woods one, but have had some practical experience of my own in this matter. I have delivered milk to all parts of this city and to all kinds of individuals, and after a very painstaking investigation, I have reached the conclusion that when my customers get their cow's milk at the right time, and in quantities to suit, they are possessed with a greater amount of the "milk of human kindness" than when the milkman is late or his measure short. Now, as before stated, I am not at all scientific, and very much dislike to dispute scientific theories given by scientific men, but "facts are stubborn things" and must be recognized, all fanciful conclusions of Dr. Shaw's to the contrary, MILKMAN.

That Nice New Crosswalk.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: The nice new crosswalk on the corner of First and Spring streets will no doubt be well appreciated, especially in the rainy season; and now that the busy corner is beginning to be cleared away, after so long a time, we will soon be able to enjoy it as we should. Several other crosswalks might be put down, besides, when they are needed; but why the undulation near the center of the street, at the car track, was made, I cannot understand. It will probably be a nice mud hole. If the railroad is not on grade, at this point, it should be put there, as well as at Second street, by the new pavement, or if the street is not on grade, it should be put there, and then we could cross with comfort.

Yours truly, JASON.

Give It Up.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Why, in the name of the "sufficient West" do they make us send to W. H. Eastman, East Sumner, Me., our little conundrum, to wit: Why are tobacco users, smokers and chewers like a polecat and snake combined? Answer—Because they first bewilder their victims by the smell, then cover them with ambier and swallow them. Note—It is a well-known fact that the use of tobacco, either as a sedative or stimulant, debilitates. Eventually this debility compels the users to meddle themselves upon some one in order to live.

CAPT. HANSEN'S BODY.

A Monster Desires to Have Found In the Mountains.

San Diego Sun.]

On or about the 3d day of July, 1885, Capt. Hansen, a well known rancher of considerable wealth, living in Lower California, not far below the boundary line, mysteriously disappeared, and from that day to this, scarcely the slightest clue has been obtained as to what became of him. It has been supposed that the missing man was foully murdered and his body thrown into some deep and impenetrable ravine among the mountains, there to remain undiscovered by mortal eye for all time to come. Circumstances attendant upon his disappearance strongly favored this supposition, and resulted in the arrest of Ward and Gaskill, and their incarceration by the Mexican authorities in the prison at Ensenada, facts familiar to most of our readers.

Detectives have tried for weeks and months to trail the supposed murderers of Captain Hansen and bring them to justice, but thus far their efforts have been fruitless. A rumor was circulated in the city to-day that a body had been found in Lower California and it was believed to be that of the missing Hansen.

Learning of the presence of H. McCormick, of Ensenada, in this city, a reporter sought him in quest of information as to the truth of the report. "I cannot state it for a positive fact that Capt. Hansen's body has really been discovered," he replied in answer to the question, "but will tell you what I know about it. On the 19th inst. a hunter while searching for game among the mountains observed a swarm of flies hovering in the vicinity of a bunch of brush. Curious to know what it was that attracted the insects, he began pulling the brush aside. The brush was tightly wedged between two massive rocks, and the task of removing it was difficult. It was finally accomplished, however, and the sunlight streamed down into a cavity between the rocks. Peering forward, an object met the eyes of the hunter which filled him with horror, for there, stretched at full length, lay the body of a man who had evidently been murdered. A curious circumstance was noted. Such portions of the body as were visible—the hands and head—had no appearance of decomposition, but were dried and withered. The clothing, too, was intact. Hastily throwing some brush upon the ghastly object, the hunter made his way to Ensenada as fast as possible, and on arriving there told his story substantially as I have related it to you. He also said that the body he had found was in the vicinity where a pocket-book and certain private papers belonging to Captain Hansen had been recovered after his disappearance."

Mr. McCormick further added that a party had been organized, and had gone out to bring the body in. He left Ensenada for San Diego on the 24th instant, up to which time the party had not returned, nor had anything been heard from them. If there be any foundation in the report, as given by the hunter, the truth will doubtless be made known in a few days at most, and should it be proven that the body of Capt. Hansen has actually been recovered it will go a long way toward clearing many things heretofore unexplained.

A New Town Site.

San Diego Sun.]

Charles F. Morrill, a member of the firm of Bates, Morrill & Nason, returned yesterday from an extended visit to the hot springs now being developed by the aforesaid firm, three and one-half miles from Murrieta. Mr. Morrill states that the springs open out on a little plateau above a fertile valley, owned by the firm, and that the water will be developed and used to irrigate at least 1200 acres. A stream of fifty inches is now running, which will irrigate 500 acres. A town site has been surveyed off, and the construction of several new buildings will soon commence. The most important part of the enterprise is the building of a broad-gauge motor road between the new town and the California Southern at Murrieta, which has already been surveyed, and will be built this winter by the enterprising firm. The road will cost $10,000, a bagatelle sum to men of their caliber. A thriving little place will soon be realized from their labors.

Query—How many miles does the Ahkoond of Swat carry around with him?

THE HUBBARD TRACT

Is by all odds the cheapest and most desirable tract on the market for the money. You can have fine large lots for only $175 and upwards, and each lot is covered with choice bearing grape vines, the streets lined with pepper trees, and graded. Tote property is advancing in value every day, and all we would ask of you is to examine it before you purchase elsewhere. We wish to give you bargains, and you will be convinced of it. You have heard that Los Angeles is growing southwest, and such is most assuredly the case. Look into the matter, and you will find this tract is being surrounded by our city. The soil is perfect; water pure, and the neighborhood as charming as a picture, and from this point you have the finest view of the mountains to be obtained in the county, and most every summer day, commencing about 11 a. m., a refreshing breeze. Just think! you can get lots here for only $5 per front foot. You can have them for $50 cash, and installments of $10 per month, without interest. The tract is a few minutes' walk from the Electric road, on Pico street or the proposed one on Adams street; or the horse car line to be built on Washington street, and you have good schools and churches, etc., close at hand. I am in from 9 to 12 a. m., and will take you out with pleasure at 2 p. m.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

PASADENA.

A KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERY — GOV. SHELDON VISITS PASADENA.

Correspondence of the Times.]

PASADENA, Oct. 1.—A sufficient number of signatures has been obtained for forming a commandery of Knights Templar here, and application is soon to be made for a charter. B. W. Bates has the matter in hand.

Gov. Lionel Sheldon, one of the two receivers of the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company, arrived here last night in his private car, accompanied by his wife and his wife's sister. The party come on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Cole of this place, who are relatives. Gov. Sheldon has led an active and eventful life. He was a brigadier-general in the Army of the Tennessee; a member of Congress from Louisiana during the stormy days of reconstruction; Governor of New Mexico during the most unsettled period in the history of that Territory; and now the executive head of the great Texas and Pacific Railroad, in which capacity he has lately been called upon to deal with a strike that threatened to spread to all the railway systems of the country. Gov. Sheldon is an old army comrade of Gen. Vandever, Republican nominee for Congress in this district, and speaks most warmly in his praise.

Capt. A. C. Drake has sold his residence property on Los Robles avenue, furniture and all, to George W. Spafford, a wealthy young Englishman, who is here for his health. The price was $5500.

The size of the building boom in this propinquity may be judged by the fact that one firm of builders here—Buchanan Bros.—have contracts on hand for erecting thirteen houses. And theirs is but one firm among a score or more.

Victor Stewart, a brother of W. B. Stewart, architect of the Pasadena public school, has formed a co-partnership with H. Bidgway, and the firm is now Ridgway & Stewart, architects.

There are other enterprises besides street railroads developing here, the outcome of which will be greatly for the good of Pasadena. More anon.

H. B. Lockwood, President of the Riverside Lawn Tennis Club, played a series of friendly sets here yesterday with members of the home club.

Mr. T. Dougherty is preparing to put up a two-story residence in South Pasadena.

Ward Bros. have plans in preparation at Bidway & Stewart's for a cottage on Raymond avenue.

Our street cars are running as regularly as though they had been started ten years ago.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Government bonds dull but strong. State bonds neglected.

The confidence existing in higher prices for stocks last evening was shaken this morning by an industriously circulated story that the Pennsylvania road had withdrawn from the trunk line pool. Another rumor was started that Commissioner Fink had resigned his position as commissioner of the pool, but it was afterwards learned that he had resigned as arbitrator only: This news, and such as it was, caused a pressure to sell, sentiments on board having undergone a sudden change, and room traders sold everything, thus helping the downward movement. With the exception of a slight rally toward 11 o'clock the decline was almost continuous until afternoon. This slight rally was followed by another decline, which was checked after 12 o'clock, and the market became generally firm, slight fractions being regained. It closed firm, close to the lowest figures of the day.

Money on call loaned at from 5 to 17 per cent., closing at 5 per cent. asked.

Two Friends Meet.

"Hello! Old fellow! What have you been doing to yourself? You look like a subject for the undertaker," exclaimed the man on the right.

"I have been taking mercury and potash mixtures until they have nearly ruined me," sequested the old man on crutches.

"And I," said the other, "have been taking the genuine Swift's Specific, which has built me up from the first dose."

Swift's Specific

Nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half-breed from the Creek Indians, who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The demand has been increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. This great

TWICE GUILTY.

Bayaton, the Double Murderer, Legally Shoulders His Crimes.

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the murderer Bayaton was brought into Judge Cheney's court by Deputy Sheriff Martin Aguirre. Judges Brunson and Cheney occupied the bench. Upon the court calling the case of the People vs. Bayaton, the defendant was told to stand up.

District Attorney Holton: "What is your name?

A. "Albert George Bayaton."

Q. "Have you an attorney?"

A. "No."

Q. "Do you wish one?"

A. "No."

District Attorney Holton: "I have an information charging you with the crime of murder." [Information read to the defendant charging the killing of J. B. K pp.]

The Court: "Bayaton, do you desire to plead now, or do you desire time to plead?"

Bayaton: "Well, I plead guilty."

The Court: "What is it?"

Bayaton: "Guilty."

The Court: "Do you desire to plead now?"

Bayaton: "Yes, sir."

The Court: "Waives time to plead, Mr. Clerk, To this information do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

Bayaton: "Guilty."

The Court: "When do you desire the sentence of the Court?"

Bayaton: "As early as possible."

The Court: "As early as possible. Do you desire the Court to sentence you to-day, or do you want time?"

Bayaton: "Well, I should like a little time."

The Court: "I don't mean time after sentence; I mean time before sentence."

Mr. Holton: "You have pleaded guilty to this information. You have the right if you wish to wait for two days before you have your sentence, and you have the right to take your sentence now. The Court gives you such time as you choose."

Bayaton: "Well, you can sentence me now, sir."

The Court: "Mr. District Attorney, have you the evidence here fixing the degree?"

Mr. Holton: "I think I shall have to ask you to wait until to-morrow. I think I can have the evidence here to-morrow for fixing the degree. I will ask your Honor to fix the time for fixing the degree to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock."

The Court: "Have the testimony here to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Bayaton, the Court will have to hear testimony in order to fix the degree of the crime."

Bayaton: "All right, sir."

The Court—"It will be heard to-morrow morning at ten o'clock. You have the right to bring such evidence as you choose. The District Attorney can bring his at that time, so the Court may hear the evidence for the purpose of fixing the degree of the offense on your plea."

Here the District Attoyney read another information to the prisoner charging him with the killing of Catherine Bayaton, his wife, on the 17th of September. Upon being asked by the District Attorney if he desired an attorney in that case, the prisoner answered "No." He then waived time to plead, pleaded guilty, and said he wished his sentence. The Court thereupon fixed the same time for the hearing of the evidence, and the prisoner was removed.

LAND SLIDE

In the "Big Cut" in the Cajon Pass on the C. S. B. R.

San Bernardino Index, Sept. 28.]

About 6 o'clock this morning another land slide occurred in the Big Cut in the Cajon Pass, on the C. S. B. R. The cut is filled for about two hundred feet and to a depth of nearly twenty-five feet. No. 29 was held at the depot till late in the afternoon awaiting orders to move on to the pass. The difficulty to-day was that there was no crew on the other side of the summit to come to the rescue and take transferred passengers and mail and express matter. The difficulty has probably been overcome by this time, but it will be several days before freight trains will pass through the cut. The California Southern is having considerable trouble with these land slides in the Big Cut, and when the wet weather sets in they will likely be bothered more than at present.

Money Wanted at Hale's.

First week, Wednesday, October 6. There should be an objective point in every proposition, whether it be a thing to be considered carefully, or whether the result to be attained be at once perceptible. In the proposition "Money Wanted at Hale's!" two things are to be examined minutely. In the first place the reason why; in the second place the effect it would have on the retailer and consumer alike. The law of supply and demand determines the limit of values. For example: We have already bought 25 per cent. more goods than we can possibly sell ordinarily; thus the supply is greater than the demand, taking it for granted that we receive a fair proportion or equal distribution of trade; but as we increase values we increase demand; and we argue that $500 worth of merchandise, sold at a net profit of 10 per cent., is far better than 20 per cent. on $200 sold. This reasoning leads us to offer different lines at such prices that we sell readily. No old stock carried over, and everything satisfactory.

J. M Hale & Co's., 7 and 9 N. Spring street, Wednesday, October 6, an extreme bargain will be 2000 yards of American chambray prints at 5c per yard; in a beautiful selection or combination of colors—brown and red, pink and terra cotta, dark brown and garnet, and a dozen other different combinations. THE WHITE SCALE!

I AM PREPARED TO SPRAY ORCHARDS of from 10 to 10 000 trees at the earliest date with my patent scale-killer. I guarantee it to kill the White Ostheny, Red, Black and San Jose scales; also the Wooly Aphis, without injury to the blossoms, fruit or tree. It does not drop a leaf or young fruit, and leaves no disagreeable odor like the whale oil. Parties desiring orchards sprayed will find it to their interest to call on me and see some of my work. Address or call at 354 First Street.

Together with all chronic diseases and diseases incident to females, successfully treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,

275 NORTH MAIN ST.,

Next the Diamond House, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations, thus bringing the remedies into direct contact with the diseased parts. These are in all cases combined with the proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, nervous system and blood, etc.

In order to show how quickly lung diseases are cured by our system of treatment, combined with our glorious climate, we give a few extracts from letters received from our former patients:

Thomas Arthur, San Francisco, Cal., writes: For 22 years I was afflicted with catarrhal deafness, the right one seemingly entirely deaf. I came under Dr. Williams's care in March of this year, and at the end of July I was as sound as a bill.

John Wesley Lee, Esq., Portland, Or., writes: Dr. Williams, Dear Sir—I am still as ever I was in my life. You will remember when I came to you I had to be led by my daughter, the granulations on my eyelids were so bad, and I want to say to the good people of Los Angeles that you cured me entirely in just 12 weeks from the day I began treatment. May God continue to prosper you.

Solomon Wakely, Santa Barbara, writes: For seven years I was troubled with a valvular affection of the heart. At times I was very miserable. I visited Los Angeles in May, 1885, and in two months I was cured and have had no trouble since.

James E. Marsh, Pillsbury, Pa., writes: For many years I was a sufferer from bronchial consumption. I visited Southern California for a cure, but I soon found that I needed something more positive in its nature. I applied to Dr. Williams, who, with his various medical inhalations, cured me in three months.

Mrs. James Griswold, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: I had known of Dr. Williams's Throat and Lung Institute in Detroit, Mich., for many years, and as soon as I arrived in Los Angeles, Cal., and heard Dr. Williams was there, I placed myself under treatment for asthma, or asthmatic consumption, as most doctors call it, and although I had been a great sufferer for 12 years, I have not had an attack since the first inhalation from Dr. Williams, which was about a year ago.

Hon. Erastus Kelly, Montreal, Canada, says: The Southern California climate is ahead of anything I have ever enjoyed, and yet it was insufficient to cure me of tubercular consumption, second stage, until assisted by Dr. Williams's medicated inhalations, which did the work in 5 months from the time I began treatment.

Wilson Grant, Esq., Louisville, Ky., writes: For 15 years I was a sufferer from catarrh, which latterly got into my lungs and produced catarrhal consumption. I lost 60 pounds in weight and became so weak I could not walk 100 rods. After I had spent 6 months in Southern California, I concluded to try Dr. Williams, of whom so much had been said, and I am gratified to know that in 4½ months he has cured me entirely, and in a few days I returned home delighted to my delighted family and friends.

Coronado Beach is situated directly across the bay of San Diego, one mile from the city. It contains 4(6) acres of rich, sandy loam, from 20 to 70 feet above tide water, which is subdivided and platted in an artistic manner into villa and other lots.

The ocean beach is one of the finest in the world, stretching far away into old Mexico. For bathing and driving it is unsurpassed. The surf is medium, with no undertow.
